

Have you been sent a default notice?

Here is some important information to help you

Information sheet
No.002

We understand this can be a stressful time, but you're not alone. There are people who can help and things you can do.

If you're feeling overwhelmed, or that you can't cope with your finances there is help available to support your mental wellbeing at this time. Go to www.moneyhelper.org.uk/wellbeing or phone 0800 138 7777.

It's time to take action

1 Read the default notice carefully.
It explains what you need to do, and what could happen if you don't respond. If you are not sure what it means, ask the lender or a debt adviser.

2 Get free debt advice – help is at hand.
You can get free, non-judgemental and independent help and advice from a number of organisations. You should first visit MoneyHelper's Debt Advice Locator Tool: www.moneyhelper.org.uk/debt-advice-locator. You can also call 0800 138 7777 or WhatsApp message +44 7701 342744.

See over for other organisations you can contact.

3 Find a solution with your debt adviser.
They can suggest ways to deal with the problem and to make sure the most important debts are paid first. For example:

- A debt adviser may be able to negotiate on your behalf.
- They may be able to help you get 'breathing space' – a defined period where you have legal protections from action taken by your lender.
- In some circumstances, they can help you ask a court for more time to repay a debt. Keep copies of letters and emails in case these are needed by the court.

To keep in mind

- If you don't do something quickly, the lender can take action against you - for example, by demanding payment of money owed, or repossessing goods on hire-purchase. The default could stay on your credit file for 6 years, making it more difficult to get credit.

See over for details of where to get help and advice.

Debt advice – help is at hand

Debt advice is where you get help from people in dealing with your debt. They can help you talk to people you owe money to and set up a repayment plan you can stick to.

- People that access advice resolve their issues more quickly than those that don't and hundreds of thousands get free debt advice every year.
- Whatever your situation, debt advice can help. Your first port of call should be MoneyHelper's Debt Advice Locator Tool: www.moneyhelper.org.uk/debt-advice-locator or 0800 138 7777 for telephone or +44 7701 342744 for WhatsApp chat.
